7TH EUROPEAN CONGRESS
ON VIOLENCE IN CLINICAL PSYCHIATRY

“Challenges for care and treatment”

Please submit your abstract by the 1st of March 2011

Psychiatric clinicians, psychiatrists, practitioners, psychiatric mental health nurses, psychologists, health scientists, educators, trainers, researchers, managers, and policymakers engaged in the management, study or treatment of aggressive behaviour of psychiatric patients and/or persons with intellectual disabilities and serious behavioural problems are invited to submit an abstract for the 7th European Congress on Violence in Clinical Psychiatry.

In line with earlier editions, the 7th European Congress on Violence will focus strongly on clinically relevant and practically useful interventions aiming at treating and reducing violent behaviour of psychiatric and forensic patients. However this time the focus is also on severe problem behaviour in persons with intellectually disability. The broad multidisciplinary scope of the European Congress on Violence in Clinical Psychiatry that will be addressed in Prague in 2011 is expressed in the various subthemes:

- Assessment and treatment of sexual violence
- Biological determinants & factors of violence
- Service user perspectives on violence
- Gender aspects of violence
- Impact and effect of coercive measures on patients
- Impact and effect of violence on staff and caregivers
- Ethical and legal perspectives on violence
- Strategies for reducing coercive measures
- Nature, epidemiology and cross-cultural aspects of violence
- Pharmacological treatments for violent patients
- Psychological treatments, therapies & trainings for violent patients
- Risk & Strength Assessment: prediction of violence
- Specific populations: forensic
- Specific populations: intellectually disabled
